Kukoff is an artist who «thinks» obsessively. Within him lies a persistent concern, an obsession, almost methodical, to be simultaneously present in the desire, the intention, the gesture, and the action as they emerge and unfold, while maintaining a certain conscious detachment from this action, allowing him to reflect on its efficiency and listen to his soul as it receives the outcome.

His work, like all human «actions,» is an impulse toward the world, a relationship with the world. In this sense, it is a perpetual questioning, but also a form of contemplation. His creations are painted reflections, embodied meditations, ideas in crisis materialized to extend the quest for the absolute that drives all that vibrates and lives in this world. Whether painting, sculpting, thinking, writing, meditating, or creating in any possible way, no part of him escapes this obsession.

The question of Being has always been and remains resolutely at the core of the reflections and contemplations that animate his artistic work. For him, everything proceeds from and testifies to Being, irreducibly. In everything that happens, he perceives a presence speaking intimately and discreetly. A sufficient reason manifests itself, striving to flourish — clumsy, imperceptible, unfulfilled, and insatiable — in this imperfect and veiled world. Something unique that IS, that vibrates, that lives in everything. Like a single face with infinite grimaces, populating all sensitive forms, connecting them, animating them, with its energy vibrating everywhere. It is this intimate Being, the mover of all things, that grounds all the existential concerns he continuously explores and scrutinizes.
